

To Whom It May Concern,Commercial radio is a stagnant wasteland that caters to the lowest common denominator of the listening public. Since XM radio is a service supported by subscriber dollars I can't understand how it can fall under your jurisdiction.

Please allow the network to operate as we subscribers wish it to and send a message to the commercial radio conglomerate that they are the ones that need to make format changes if they want to survive.

Sincerely,
Neil Pultz